Board of Education Adopts New Policy to Permit Spanking When 'Appropriate'

A new policy, providing that corporal punishment may be used when "deemed appropriate," was adopted by the Torrance Board of Education.

The new policy was adopted in accordance with a new state law, Superintendent J. H. Hull declared.

"We have discouraged spanking children in school and will continue to do so," he said. "The new policy will give us power to act in cases where spanking appears the best answer to the problem. It is a last resort, not a power to be used every day."
